Thank You

Firstly, I hope that everyone is safe and well and not seriously affected by the deluge. It seems to be a year of “well, I wasn’t expecting that!”.

Secondly, thank you all for your ideas and suggestions written on Ruth’s cards. This is giving us valuable information about what we need to cover as we move forward.

Tween Meeting News

My plan was to return to the usual routine of having a Tween Meeting News email distributed on the Monday, but things seem to be conspiring against me, and Mother Nature took up some time too. So I didn’t send the email until early Tuesday morning. When I didn’t get my copy of the newsletter emailed back to me by late afternoon I became suspicious. Unfortunately, the State Library group email list was broken by the time I sent the email (probably flood issues). Given what else is going on down Southbank way, repairing the list has not been high on their priority list. So I am trying again on Saturday afternoon. These newsletters will be posted to the Weebly website <https://familyst.weebly.com/> as soon as I can make it play nicely with me.

News Flash

Between the original email and now, I was advised on Friday afternoon by Karen McNair (boss lady at Strathpine Library) that Covid restrictions had been relaxed and they can now offer us the usual morning tea facilities on Tuesday 08 March, just like the good old days.

Next Meeting

The next meeting is Tuesday 08 February; the Library opens at 8:30am, our meeting starts at 9am. At this meeting I would like to review the collated ideas with you and collect a bit more information.

There will also be a “show and tell” segment, so please think about what interesting family history related things you have done, found, read etc that you could share with the group. It doesn’t have to be lengthy, complicated or on a PowerPoint presentation (but it could be). It can be just like you did in Year One.

Our first interview session seemed to go well and will continue on. Please let me know if you are prepared to be interviewed, or would like an opportunity for that big break which could lead to a second career as Michael Parkinson or Leigh Sales.

A deep-dive into a particular record type will be presented after morning tea.

We meet at Strathpine Library from 9:00 to 11:00 on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month.

- please wear your name tags; it will assist us in getting to know other members
- at this stage, masks are no longer be required at meetings (obviously, rules are subject to change). Some people may have their own reasons for continuing to wear masks, so please respect individual choices.
- please bring something to lean on, more writing may be required
- normal catering arrangements will apply (it has taken a long time but now it is back!)

Items of Interest

The sub-title for this heading is “suggestions for passing your time”

- This year’s world-renowned RootsTech conference started a couple of days ago. As per last year, it is being held entirely on-line. All sessions are available to everyone at no cost. Presentations can be viewed “live” or later at a more convenient time by registering for access at home <https://www.familysearch.org/rootstech/home>
- As part of their Down-Under Series, Legacy Family Tree Webinars had another webinar, “Exploring the new 1921 UK Census”, which screened Wednesday 02 March at 1100 AEST. As with all of their webinars it can be viewed live or later, but non-subscribers will only be able to view it for free live or for a week after the event so don’t leave it too long. To register for the live viewing, or to find out more about it, follow this link <https://familytreewebinars.com/webinar/exploring-the-new-1921-uk-census/>
