

①

We began the year when Ruth Linde told us about the migration of her ancestors from the disputed area between Prussia and Denmark called Schlesweig _____

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

What was the name (from an island in Torres Strait) given to the laundry operated by Mal Jordan's Minshull relatives?

--	--	--	--

In March we began a challenge seeking more information on an 1860s immigrant John Kelly (or Kelley) and his family. His wife's maiden surname was spelled in several different ways. What was the longest version?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Without access to the library, we used the library edition of FindMyPast from home. What user name appeared in the message "Welcome back, _____" when we logged in?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Around ANZAC Day, members of the group transcribed details of 15 local diggers from the Library WWI database to the site _____ ANZACS

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

The object of memory contributed by Erica was her Auntie ____'s Glory Box

--	--	--	--

What is the website that lets you attach old photos with a written description to a map at a related location?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Which cemetery did we watch Kelly explore during The Great Day In during July?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Which major repository changed their search engine at the end of July?

--	--	--

Chris's great-grandmother's sculpture was hand-carved on the Andaman & _____ Islands

--	--	--	--	--	--	--

Helen Smith talked a lot about the London Gazette in August and mentioned briefly two others: the _____ Gazette and the Edinburgh Gazette.

--	--	--	--	--	--

The colours of the new Trove logo are green and

--	--	--	--	--	--

Which world-wide organisation sponsors the project that Paul T worked on while locked down?

--	--	--	--	--

In which regional city in Queensland was Bob looking for the graves of his Coley ancestors?

--	--	--	--	--	--	--

The New South Wales paper with fully searchable issues from 1955 to 1995 on the National Library website is the Sydney _____ Herald

--	--	--	--	--	--	--

What is the free easily-searchable source of historic photographs used by Archives and Libraries around the world?

--	--	--	--	--	--

The Two Minute Tip on getting free documents from The National Archives (UK) shows a group member outside the front door. Where is it located?

--	--	--

The scallywag athletes were the _____ generation of the family to use JP's Pushie mower.

--	--	--	--	--

③ Answer three multiple choice questions

① What is _____?

- (a) The official site for births and deaths in England
- (b) The only free site for marriage records in England
- (c) The Guild of One Place Studies
- (d) A registration district in Surrey

② What is _____?

- (a) An index to Australian death and funeral notices
- (b) The oldest active burial ground in Brisbane
- (c) The surname of the first European to die in Moreton Bay
- (d) A type of ornamental carving on a gravestone

③ What is _____?

- (a) The name of an 1866 immigrant ship
- (b) The surname of Pine River's first Mayor
- (c) The family name of the "two little graves" in Lawnton cemetery
- (d) The former name of Samford

